Top Teachers Give Students the Edge

Method Test Prep's SAT and ACT online classes are taught by top teachers. They understand the subject matter but also how to approach the test in the right way.

Our teachers know that students learn in different ways, so they offer advice on how to adapt strategies for personal use. It's the next best thing to having a live in-person tutor!

Method Test Prep's online classes are ideal for juniors who are preparing for their first test and seniors who want to try to boost their scores before college admissions time.
